

Whole School English Competition

On Thursday 3rd March it is World Book Day! To celebrate this, we are very excited to announce that we have the famous illustrator and author James Mayhew coming to visit our school. He will be in on Monday 28th February to talk to the children about the books he has written and top tips for writing and illustrating stories. The PTFA have kindly agreed to fund this exciting event.

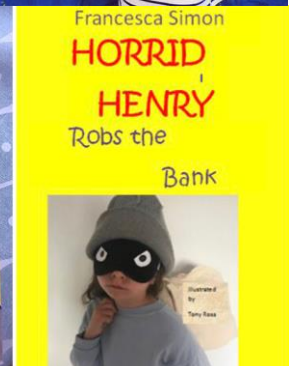

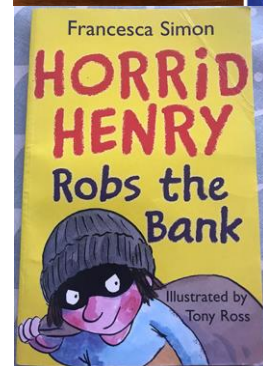

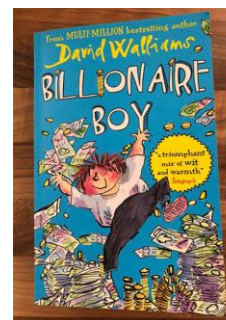

Foundation

Recreate your favourite book cover.

Read your favourite story with a grown up and have fun dressing up to recreate the front cover!

Send in a photo of the original book and your brand-new cover.

You can be as creative as you like!

Year 1

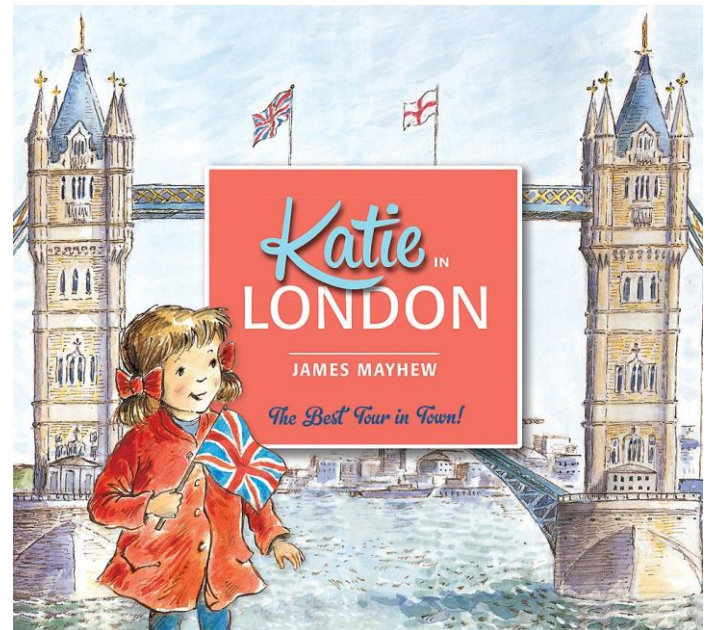

Create your own dinosaur. After reading 'Katie and The Dinosaurs' at school, use your imagination to create your own dinosaur. Write a description to go with your picture. Can it fly? Is it a carnivore? Surprise your teacher with your wonderful creations!

Year 2

Write your own 'Katie' story.

In school, we have read 'Katie In London'. Can you think of a brand-new adventure for Katie to go on whilst Grandma is asleep! Write your own exciting story. You could even draw your own pictures!

Prize: The lucky winners will receive a copy of one of James Mayhew's fantastic books from the Katie series signed by the author himself!
